A-Frame Cottage/Enchanting Outlook!!!

At the end of a no through road and tucked in amongst natural surrounds is this gorgeous A-Frame style home, yet only minutes to the waters of Western Port Bay.

Imagine relaxing on the deck and watching the dragonflies and birds forage near the small creek running past, or simply sitting near the fire pit with a hot drink on a cool day. Upon entering the spacious open plan living area you are presented with double doors that open out to the deck giving a feeling of bringing the outdoors in, and the wood lined walls and terra cotta tiles only add to the warmth and charm. A well set out kitchen with new stainless steel dishwasher, electric cooking, walk-in-pantry, overhead cupboards, and ample bench space, has windows at both ends that let in lots of natural light. The home is with fitted with a wood heater and new split system heating /cooling unit to keep temperatures at desired levels. There is also a family bathroom with a full size bath, laundry and separate toilet completing the layout on the first floor.

The solid staircase takes you to the second storey where there are 2 good size bedrooms with carpet, built in robes and large windows, one of them
